

Privacy Policy

At Azure Markets Limited, we are committed to maintaining the highest standards of integrity and transparency. In line with our global operations and client-centric approach, it becomes essential to collect Personal Information from our potential and existing clients. We take this responsibility seriously—adopting secure, fair, and compliant practices for managing and processing Personal Data.

Our operations adhere to internationally recognized privacy frameworks and business ethics. The collection and use of your personal information are conducted in compliance with the EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and other applicable data protection laws. Your data may be securely shared within internal departments of Azure Markets for operational, regulatory, and account management purposes—but never in a manner that breaches confidentiality or violates legal obligations.

If you have any questions or feedback about this Privacy Policy, please don't hesitate to contact our Compliance & Support Team at support@azuremarkets.com. We prioritize transparency and strive to uphold your privacy rights in every step of our data handling procedures.

Personally Identifiable Information

Azure Markets Limited values the privacy and protection of your personal data. Whether you are visiting our website, applying for an account, or communicating with our team, we handle your information with utmost care.

Upon creating a trading account, we may request information including (but not limited to) your name, email address, contact details, residential address, and identification documents. This data is collected to:

- Verify your identity in compliance with KYC and AML regulations
- Fulfill legal obligations under global financial regulatory laws
- Manage your trading account and secure platform access
- Improve our services and provide customer support
- Perform risk assessments and fraud detection

We use multi-layered authentication systems and verification checks to ensure data integrity and security.

Third-Party Sites

Our website may contain links to third-party websites for your convenience. Azure Markets is not responsible for the privacy practices, data policies, or security measures of external sites. We strongly advise you to review their privacy statements before providing any personal information.

In line with our policy of not sharing your information with unauthorized third parties, we do not sell or rent your Personal Data under any circumstances. Any sharing that occurs will be solely for regulatory compliance or service provision and always under strict confidentiality agreements.

Privacy Statement Changes

Azure Markets reserves the right to modify this Privacy Policy at any time. We encourage you to periodically review this page for the most current version. In the event of significant changes, we may notify you via email or platform updates. Continued use of our services indicates acceptance of the revised policy.

EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)

Azure Markets fully complies with the GDPR standards. As a registered international brokerage, we are committed to safeguarding the privacy and rights of EU clients and all other global users by:

- Limiting the collection of personal data to what is necessary
- Protecting the data with encryption and access controls
- Allowing users full rights over their data (access, rectification, erasure, etc.)
- Appointing Data Protection Officers (DPO) to oversee compliance

Personal data is shared only with trusted service providers who are bound by data protection obligations.

Public Areas and Voluntary Submission

Should you choose to provide your name and contact details on public areas of our website (e.g., contact forms, live chat, etc.), you do so voluntarily. Any information you share in this way may be used to follow up on your inquiries, provide services, or register your account with Azure Markets.

Private Area Communications

To maintain service quality and legal compliance, Azure Markets may monitor, record, or archive your communications with us—whether through email, chat, phone, or other channels. These communications are used solely for internal purposes, such as training, dispute resolution, or verifying transactions. Do not send sensitive Personal Information via email.

Cookies

Azure Markets uses cookies to improve the user experience. These small text files help us:

- Analyze user behavior and session activity
- Remember login credentials and language preferences
- Customize platform content and advertisements
- Provide analytical reports to improve services

We use both Session Cookies (temporary and deleted when you close the browser) and Persistent Cookies (stored longer to remember your preferences on future visits). You can disable cookies through your browser, but doing so may limit website functionality.

Session Cookies

Used for purposes like:

- Enabling seamless navigation across different pages
- Retaining your session upon login
- Storing non-sensitive tracking data for optimization

Persistent Cookies

Used for:

- Assigning a unique user ID to tailor content and marketing
- Aggregating behavioral statistics
- Verifying identity across sessions
- Preventing repeat survey requests and enhancing UI
